

Brazil, Rio de Janeiro, 2015

Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) Session

Sunday, May 31, 2015 – FROM 1:30 pm-5 pm

COPE WORKSHOP FOR EDITORS AND REVIEWERS

(See Program, http://wcri2015.org/4WCRI\_Program.pdf)

(Organized Charlotte Haug, Vice- Chair of COPE; Chris Graf, Treasurer of COPE, Associate Editorial Director in the Medical Journal Division at Wiley-Blackwell; Muhammad Irfan, Council Member, Head, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioural Sciences, Peshawar Medical College, Peshawar. Pakistan; Behrooz Astaneh, Council Member, Editor-in-Chief, Iranian Journal of Medical Sciences, <http://publicationethics.org/about/council>)

1. Introduction to COPE
2. Ethical challenges for editors. COPE Code of Conduct for Editors
3. How to deal with suspected misconduct? Flowcharts developed by COPE to assist editors, reviewers and institutions, eLearning
4. Breakout session with discussion of cases

COPE symposium

Publication without borders: Ethical challenges in a globalized world.

Chaired by Charlotte Haug.

1,5 hours - during the conference (20 min presentation, 10 min discussion)-

See Program, http://wcri2015.org/4WCRI\_Program.pdf

Brazil, Rio de Janeiro, 2015

- 1. COPE's role in leading the debate in publication ethics. Principles of Transparency and Best Practice in Scholarly Publishing (Charlotte Haug)
- 2. Ethical approval as a prerequisite for publication: Does it mean the same for all countries? (Muhammad Irfan and Behrooz Astaneh)
- 3. Authorship - credit and responsibility, including issues in large and interdisciplinary studies (Rosemary Shinkai)